ST. STEPHENS BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. J. W. Hulse, Pastor.
The services were both interesting and well attended last Sunday. In the morning service Rev. Hulse's beautiful discourse was greatly enjoyed by all his hearers. Text, John 1:13; preface, 3:5; subject, "The Spiritual Change." The Sunday School was well attended. Banner Class No. 4, taught by Mrs. Clara Brown. In the afternoon five souls were added; four were baptized; one by letter. The B. Y. P. U. is doing nicely. Mrs. M. E. Mosley, president. In the evening worship the pastor again preached, continued subject, "Spiritual Change," which the congregation greatly enjoyed. Collection for the day one hundred eighty-seven dollars.

& D. of L. are to be complimented on their banquet which was Monday evening. We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Nellie Berry and Master Charles Clifford. We sympathize with the bereaved families. We still have a small sick list which we hope a speedy recovery. Every auxiliary of the church is alive. Come and visit our church.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. G. H. Daniel, Pastor.
Services were well attended all day Sunday. Sunday School was very progressive. At 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. we had an old-time speaking meeting. Everyone enjoyed themselves. B. Y. P. U. had a splendid program. Sunday evening we gave the right hand of fellowship to quite a few and partook of the Lord's Supper. The S.

Services were well attended both morning and night. Rev. Bell preached a fine sermon. Our excellent choir furnished music at each service. All departments of the church are doing splendid. Our Superintendent met with an accident last week and is still suffering. Mr. Silas Wallace, who has been visiting in St. Joseph, has returned home. Mrs. Maggie Woods of Batesville, Ark., is a visitor in the City. A subscription fund was taken for Rev. O. A. Johnson, our co-laborer on the West Side, whose parsonage was badly damaged by fire. A neat sum was realized and given to Rev. Johnson.
